

Welcome to Wilton Youth Services

Part of Wilton's Social Services Department, Wilton Youth Services tends to the social and emotional developmental needs of Wilton's youth. Youth Services provides behavioral health services including counseling for youth and their families, information and referrals, and consultation with parents and professionals. Youth Services offers assistance to families with financial need to ensure that all children can access extracurricular activities. Youth Services collaborates closely with parents, schools, and other youth-serving organizations to identify youth problems and needs and assist in developing solutions. Wilton Youth Services also partners with Wilton Youth Council, a private non-profit organization, to offer community, parent and youth programming.

Wilton Youth Services provides:

- Information and Referrals
- Short-term Counseling
- Family Support
- Crisis Intervention
- Program Development
- Advocacy
- Case Management
